

Jayne Bond & the Pink MartinisTM

Put the "special" in your special event!

Jayne Bond & the Pink Martinis is just the party band you need to make your event a success! The fun and excitement they create makes them one of the top show bands in the Midwest. Since 1997, this premiere show band has performed their classic hits all over the US and in the Caribbean at corporate parties, festivals, conventions, wedding receptions and special events.

Jayne and the band play a wide variety of hits in a setting of colorful costumes and high energy choreography. The band gets audiences of all ages involved in dance contests, hula hoop contests, conga lines and on stage with "live karaoke"... we provide the music and lyrics; you provide the star power!

Jayne Bond and the Pink Martinis is versatile and can create a show to fit your special needs, whether it's a 50s sock hop, a groovy 60s "happening", 70s disco party, an 80s retro theme party, or the cutting-edge hits of today. No matter what the theme of your event, Jayne and the band will make it fun and memorable.

The band is available in many sizes to suit your needs... from a duo or trio to the full 8-piece band. We can even add a 3-piece horn section for extra spice!

